WOMEN CAN VOTE FOR THESE

Chief Clerk of Election Commission Gives Females Tips on Their Rights.

Chief Clerk Dennis J. Egan of the Election Board announces that women can vote for the following on the dates named:

Feb. 29—Municipal primaries for thirty-five aldermen and one municipal court judge to take the place of the late Judge Joseph E. Ryan.

April 4—Election for the above officers.

April 11—Primaries for state, ward and precinct committees.

Sept. 13—Primaries for state board of equalization, three university trustees, assessor, board of review member, twelve municipal court judges, three sanitary district trustees and senatorial committees.

Nov. 7—Election of the above and of presidential electors.

The offices for which they probably cannot vote will be:

April 11—Primaries for delegates to national conventions.

June 6—Election of six Circuit and Superior court judges.

Sept. 13—Primaries for congressmen, state senators and representatives, governor, lieutenant-governor, secretary of state, auditor, treasurer, attorney-general, county recorder, state's attorney, surveyor, coroner and clerks of Circuit and Superior courts.

MACHINE WON'T COUNT

Names of Candidates for Delegates Must Alternate in Each Senatorial District.

It was a surprise to some to learn that the delegate-at-large slate of both the Sullivan and Harrison-Sabath forces will not be kept intact after it is filed with the secretary of state.

Under the law the names will rotate and will be scattered about in different positions in each senatorial district. This minimizes the advantage of a slate, it is contended.

CIVIL SERVICE BUNK

How Many Examinations in Chicago Are Framed Up for Favorites to Shut Out Ordinary Citizens?

The People of Chicago demand a thorough investigation of the Civil Service Commission's department of the city government.

They demand an investigation that will go back for years and unearth the treacherous and illegal treatment accorded to honest citizens for the benefit of a chosen few.

They demand an investigation into all of the examinations that have been held in order that the public may be informed as to how many, if any, of them were on the square.

They demand an investigation of the numerous examinations held for the benefit of particular persons, where questions were asked which could only be answered by the persons whose appointment in the civil service was evidently arranged for in advance.

The people are paying $100,000 a year for the administration of the civil service law in the city government.

They are paying $100,000 a year for a roosting place for men to make out "psychological" examination papers.

In a recent examination for stenographers the easiest word handed out for them to typewrite quickly was "eleemosynary."

Is any one foolish enough to suppose that this examination was on the square and that these hard words were not asked to keep out people who were not of the favored class?

New departments, entirely unnecessary, have been created in the civil service for pet faddists and high-browed loafers.

The taxpayers who pay the freight would not be permitted to pass an examination for dog catcher.

Poor men, devoid of education, and with starving families, who are looking for work with a pick and shovel as day laborers, have to go through a civil service examination that would shock the Sultan of Turkey. A daily newspaper printed the following about the absurd questions asked of these poor laboring men by these high-browed reformers who control the aristocracy of office holders in Chicago:

"Ten thousand men who want jobs in the streets, sewers and small parks are being put through an examination by the labor bureau of the Civil Service Commission. Here are some questions that apply:

SEAT ALL OR NO FARE

William L. O'Connell, Chairman of the Public Utilities Commission, Promulgates Order on Traction Company.

Chairman William L. O'Connell promulgated the order of the Board of Public Utilities on the Chicago traction lines compelling them to provide seats for all passengers and to install trailers whenever necessary to carry this order out.

The traction company refused to obey this order and appear to be aided and abetted in their apparent determination to discommode the public, by certain members of the city administration.

The following extract from the official proceedings of the Public Utilities Commission and the City Council Committee may enlighten the public to some extent as to the attitude of the traction companies.

Before the State Public Utilities Commission:

Commissioner Walter A. Shaw—You believe, Mr. Busby, as a practical railroad man, that, in view of the development and improvement effected in cars, it would be a practical proposition to operate trailers?"

President Leonard A. Busby, of the Chicago Surface Lines—Yes, and I think it would be a help.

Commissioner Walter A. Shaw—"Then you believe, Mr. Busby, as a practical railroad man, that in view of the development and improvement effected in cars it would be a practical proposition to operate trailers?" President Busby—"Yes, and I think it would be a help."

From indications it would seem as though the letter sent to the city council by President Leonard A. Busby of the Surface Lines asking the city to define its position toward the state's ruling was a step in a carefully worked out plan of legal strategy by which the aldermen will be used to pull the traction magnates' chest nuts from the fire.

E. J. Lehmann of The Fair is one man whose devotion to public interests and proven business ability are acknowledged by all. But notwithstanding the fact that his friends are numbered by the thousands, he has no personal political ambition, although his warm hearted support of many a winner is known to all. He would make a good Mayor, if he could ever be induced to run for office.

If Chicago votes "dry" next spring what is going to pay the $7,000,000 now derived from saloon licenses and invested in a police force?

Robert R. Jampolis would make a great judge.
